Welcome

Dr. Beck, Assistant Superintendent of Curriculum and Instruction, opened the meeting by welcoming those in attendance and thanking everyone for taking the time from their busy schedules to be a part of the committee and attending the monthly meetings. Dr. Beck invited the committee to attend the board meeting on Tuesday, December 13, 2016.

Agenda Items

II. Calendar

Discussion of the 2017–2018 school calendar was the main topic. The criteria required for the new calendar was explained by Dr. Beck. Each school day is considered to be 450 minutes and a half day is considered 270 minutes. A total of 75,600 minutes is required for an entire school year. The CISD Spring Break should line up with San Jacinto College.

The committee broke into four groups to create a variety of calendar choices to be considered for final approval.

II. Calendar Cont.

Four different calendars were created by the groups. Dr. Beck mentioned to the groups that Mrs. Hartman would generate a clean copy of each of the calendars and email them to the committee.

III. Future Meetings.

The next meeting is January 5, 2017 @ 4:00 p.m.

IV. Adjourn

The meeting adjourned at 5:05 p.m.
